A New Phase in Mormonism.

According to a letter in the New York Times from Amboy, Illinois, dated April 6, young Joe Smith has pronounced in his own favor as the prophet and leader of the Mormon Church, taking up his father's mantle, and a conference of Mormons, held at that place, have accepted him in that character. He was installed into office by that conference on the 6 of April. What are the numerical eter of its proceedings, bowever, the conference certainly was not deficient. They elected young Smith "president prophet" by acclamation and organized a church, not depen-TO LIBRARY LECTURES .- The third Lec- dent upon or subsidiary to that in Utah, but ganization.
